G. A. R. Proceedings.

Opening of the National Encampment in Boston.

THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

General Wheeler G. Vesey, of Vermont, elected Commander-in-Chief—Speech of Retiring Commander Alger—Reports of the Various Officers—Proceedings of the Woman's Relief Corps Convention.

Boston, Aug. 14.—The session of the National encampment of the G. A. R., was opened at Music Hall yesterday and the delegates from the different departments of the union comprised as fine a body of men as ever met in deliberative assembly. The hall was beautifully decorated and the floor was entirely occupied by delegates, while the balconies which were set apart for members of the Grand Army was filled with veterans.

Gen. Sherman was one of the first to arrive and he took a seat with the War Department, although urged to go upon the platform. He was warmly greeted by the comrades and was the center of attraction. Gen. Charles Devens, past commander-in-chief, was with the Massachusetts delegates and other departments were represented by prominent soldiers.

A meeting of the National council of administration delayed the opening proceedings and it was 11 o'clock when Gen. Alger appeared upon the platform and was applauded by the delegates. After prayer by Past Chaplain-in-chief Rev. J. H. Foster, Gen. Alger said it was the wish of the commander and of comrades that Gen. Sherman, who was in the center of the hall, should come to the platform. Gen. Sherman arose amid great applause and said he preferred to remain with the Missouri delegation.

Gen. Alger then made a brief apology for a lack of time to prepare his address as he desired. During the last few months he said his time had been so occupied with official duties and his private business that he had been unable to give the time and thought he would have liked to. He then addressed the convention as follows:

"While we lament the loss of nearly all our old commanders, it is a source of great consolation and pleasure to know that one of those great leaders of men is still with us and in the midst of his life. To him this nation is indebted for its freedom and its independence. Let us hope and pray that he may long be permitted to remain here, our leader, our commander, our idol and our comrade. God bless you, Gen. Sherman. Our love for you is beyond words."

Referring to the condition of the organization he said, "with few exceptions it was excellent. There have been, he continued, some disagreements in the department of Louisiana and Mississippi drawn upon the color line, the details of which will be found in the records of the judge advocate general."

"It is the same question that to-day is disturbing many localities in the southern part of this country, and which will require patience and concessions from all parties to settle. It has been my determination to recognize as a comrade the equal rights of every man, no matter what his color or nationality, provided he has the two qualifications, service and honorable discharge. In this great struggle of life the struggle is not with the weak. It is the struggle of the strong and the weak. It is the struggle of the former and helps to elevate the latter. A synopsis of the opinions of the judge advocate general, those approved and those disapproved, will be found in the report of the adjutant general."

"The official reports presented to the twenty-third National encampment, dated June 30, 1889, gave the total membership as 30,000 on the rolls at that date. On June 30, 1890, the total membership was 438,230."

With regard to the disability pension bill he said: "By a careful reading of this law and the official explanation given of it, it will be seen that no matter what a man's financial condition may be, if he is physically disabled from performing manual labor he is entitled to a pension."

"Let us be just to our lawmakers, even though they have not given us all we asked. No country on earth is or ever has been nearly as generous to its soldiers as ours."

Referring to Gen. Logan's monument he said, "The hands of the trustees, outside of the appropriation made by congress for the site and pedestal, amount to $13,341.67. I sincerely trust that the time is not far distant when this tribute to this beloved leader will have been completed. Iowa circle, in the city of Washington, has been selected as the permanent site for this monument."

Speaking of the Gen. Sheridan monument, Gen. Alger stated that under general orders issued from Grand Army headquarters to the posts throughout the country, asking for contributions of from ten to twenty-five cents per member, there has been received to Aug. 2, inclusive, $447,841. "Congress," continued the general, "has heretofore passed a law granting $10,000 each for the purchase of site and pedestal for monuments to Gen. Sheridan, Logan and Hancock. Unless this law can be so amended that a portion of the amount not needed as specified can be converted to the purchase of statues, when we consider the fact that an equestrian statue costs about $20,000, it is evident that the time for their final completion is far distant. These works should be pushed with the utmost vigor."

Tributing the Gen. Grant monument, he said "An ordinary plain vault on the banks of the Hudson marks the resting place of our great chief. This is not equitable either to us or to this nation. There should be erected at the capital of this government dedicated to the memory of this great man, a memorial building such as will be a credit to the whole people. Not a shaft; not a statue; but a monumental structure such as has not been build in this or any other country. One to which every citizen within the domain of this great land can refer with just pride. I recommend that a committee of five be appointed by this encampment, whose duties shall be in accordance with the foregoing, and empowered to solicit aid from the general government and from individual patriotic sentiment; to the glories of the past; to the shrine of the veteran; to the old flag; too little thought to the blessings we enjoy. Every patriotic act every subscription to a monument fund, every dollar devoted to the relief of the suffering, every gathering where patriotic sentiments are expressed, help to build a wealth that cannot be represented in figures, because every such act breathes the life that will perpetuate our love for the nation and continue its prosperity."

Gen. Alger closed his address with a eulogistic reference to Comrade John F. Hartman, the fifth commander-in-chief, who died during the last year.

The address was then frequently applauded, and his reference to Gen. Sherman aroused great enthusiasm. The following committee on credentials was appointed: Comrades William Wallace, of New York; A. D. Reed, of Illinois; J. W. Tatchler, of Connecticut; and Thomas B. Rogers, of Missouri, and Adj. Gen. George H. Hopkins, of Detroit, was appointed chairman.

On motion of Comrade Markham, of New York, by a unanimous rising vote it was ordered that a portrait of John A. Andrews, the war governor of Massachusetts, be placed upon the platform. A comrade from Michigan presented in the shape of a map, which was hung in front of the desk of the chairman, the resolutions adopted by the common council of the city of Detroit, July 10, supplementing the action of the department of Michigan, G. A. R., cordially inviting the National encampment to hold its next annual session in that city.

The annual reports of Adj. Gen. George H. Hopkins, of Detroit; Quartermaster General Taylor, of Philadelphia; Inspector General Brown, of Troy, and Surgeon General Horace P. Porter, were distributed among the delegates in printed form.

The report of Adj. Gen. George H. Hopkins shows that on June 30, 1890, there were in the several departments 17,178 posts, with a membership of 397,353. The gains since June 30, 1889, were 520 posts and 30,212 members. There were twenty posts and 1,581 members. The number of deaths during the year was 5,476.

The amount expended for relief for the year ending March 31, 1890, was $231,350.18; number of comrades relieved, 19,470; others relieved, 9,349. In this sum no mention is made of the large amount of private aid expended by the thousands of our members individually or collectively, and of which no record can be kept.

For the quarter ending June 30, 1890, $51,399.01 was expended. The total amount expended by the Grand Army from July 1, 1871, to July 1, 1890, amounts to the sum of $1,987,584.52. Inspector General L. E. Griffith, of Troy, N. Y., reported the order growing numerically stronger and working earnestly and harmoniously in furthering the grand objects for which it was organized. No organization on earth does more to minister to the helpless and unfortunate. He regretted that not one-half the posts had been inspected, whereas thorough inspection was necessary to secure uniformity of work and a compliance with ritual and by-laws.

He had been delayed and greatly embarrassed by the negligence of department and assistant inspectors, and suggested that some means be devised to secure a more thorough inspection of posts and a more prompt return of the reports. He presented a table showing the number of posts in the Grand Army on June 30, 1890, was 6,928; number of comrades in good standing in posts inspected, 5,010; number of posts not inspected, 1,061. Total amount expended for charity, $362,535; amount remaining in relief fund, $473,850.

The report of Surgeon General Horace P. Porter, of Maine, recommends that inspectors be required to examine post officers as to their knowledge of department and general matters pertaining to the organization. The care of the destitute and needy comrades, the burden of free medical aid, and the free surgical application of medicine should be assumed by the government that these poor comrades helped to save. It is recommended that the medical officers of the late war should form state and National organizations and should be admitted to full privileges in department encampments with the end that physical disability of comrades may be intelligently discussed and measures devised for their relief.

The pension law, the report says, should harmonize with the natural history of disability contracted by the victim in the service of the United States and in the line of duty and which is not the result of his own vicious habits. The early establishment of a commodious and comfortable retirement home for disabled volunteers soldiers at some points remote from probable epidemic infection, on either the Atlantic or Gulf coasts of the peninsula of the state of Florida, where disabled veterans may be removed from climatic influences, is earnestly suggested. The convention then took a recess to 2 p. m.

At the afternoon session officers were elected, the principal positions going to the east in pursuance, as is claimed by some, of a plan to give the encampment to the west three successive years—Detroit in '91, Toledo in '92 and Chicago in '93. The roll was called and representatives of each state had an opportunity to name their choice for commander-in-chief. California presented the claims of Col. Smedberg, a retired officer of the regular army, Connecticut named Col. Wheelock G. Vesey, of Vermont, and Maine seconded the nomination. Vesey's name was received with applause.

Indiana and Ohio named Gen. Alvin P. Hovey, of Indiana, while Montana supported Smedberg, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Idaho and Iowa expressed a preference for Col. Vesey.

When New York was reached Warner Miller arose and was greeted with applause. He was obliged to take the platform, and said he had been instructed to second the nomination of one whom the delegates honored and loved. If New York had no candidate of its own, he did not want the encampment to forget that New York once owned a little star in the Green Mountain state. Although its soil might be unfitted for ordinary crops, yet there was one crop that could be raised to perfection—the crop of loyal men. Mr. Miller concluded by seconding the nomination of Col. Vesey as the comrade who would be supported by the entire delegation of New York.

Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee and Texas in quick succession named Col. Vesey. Ex-Governor Pingree, of Vermont, eulogized the services of Col. Vesey. Utah, Virginia and Alaska wanted Col. Smedberg, and Illinois was the last state to respond for Col. Vesey. Massachusetts would have supported Col. Vesey, but as the delegation was divided in the matter of senior vice commander, it was decided to take no part in the selection of commander-in-chief.

As soon as the roll call ended Col. Smedberg ascended the platform and gracefully withdrew his name. Gen. Hovey pursuing a similar course. This action was greeted with great applause, and by a unanimous vote Col. Vesey was elected commander-in-chief.

Comrades Smedberg, Hovey and Miller were appointed a committee to escort Col. Vesey to the platform, and when he appeared there was great enthusiasm. Col. Vesey accepted the honor in brief speech.

Next in order was the selection of a candidate for senior vice commander-in-chief and it being considered that the office, out of courtesy, belonged to Massachusetts, the matter was left to the delegates from that state. After a long conference the name of Richard Tobin was presented as the unanimous choice. Mr. Tobin accepted the position.

George P. Creamer, of Baltimore, was then unanimously elected junior vice commander. There were several candidates put in nomination for the office of surgeon-in-chief and chaplain, but no action was taken until to-morrow morning. The encampment unanimously voted to hold the next encampment in Detroit, the home of Gen. Alger. Gen. Alger expressed thanks at the action of the encampment, and assured the delegates that they would receive a warm welcome. Although it would be a hard task to equal the reception they had received in Boston. The encampment then adjourned.

Convention of Naval Veterans. BOSTON, Aug. 14.—The annual convention of the National Association of Naval Veterans opened yesterday with Commodore Symmes Brown, of Columbus, O., in the chair. The following resolution offered by President Brown was then adopted:

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves as individuals and as an association to use all honorable means in our power to develop and strengthen the navy and urge upon congress liberal legislation in its behalf.

William S. Wales, of New Haven, was unanimously elected commodore; captain, B. S. Osborne, of New York; commander, P. J. McManus, of New Orleans; first lieutenant, John Driscoll, of Wisconsin; chaplain, Rev. Robert Edwards, of New York; paymaster, John F. Mace, of Philadelphia; surgeon, Lorenzo Trave, of Providence.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

Eighth Annual Convention at Tremont Temple in Boston.

Boston, Aug. 14.—The eighth annual convention of the National Women's Relief Corps opened in Tremont temple at 10 a. m. Mrs. Annie Wittenmeyer, of Philadelphia, National president, in the chair. The temple was gay with bunting, and decorated with the symbols of the corps. An opening ode was sung. The president announced the serious illness of National Chaplain Miss Madeline Morton and called upon Mrs. Emily L. Clark, department chaplain, of Massachusetts, to offer prayer.

On the platform sat the Past National officers, including Mrs. E. Florence Barker, the first president; Mrs. S. A. Turner, Mrs. Sarah C. Fuller, Miss Emma Lowe. In the press gallery were several members of the National Press Association of Washington, including President Mrs. M. B. Lincoln (Bessie Beech), Vice President Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, Secretary Miss George Snow, Treasurer Mrs. Hannah B. Sperry, Mrs. Kate Lannan Wood and Mrs. Emily Sherwood. Fully thirty-five states were represented. The galleries were crowded with members of the order. President Mrs. Wittenmeyer was in the midst of her address when Secretary Rusk, Mrs. Alger, Mrs. John A. Logan and Mrs. Livermore were announced.

In the absence of Mrs. Charity Rusk Craig, Past National president, the gold badge voted her by the encampment was presented to her father, Secretary Rusk, for her. Mrs. Bagley, of Ohio, made the presentation speech, and in reply Secretary Rusk said that the prosperity of the G. A. R. largely depended upon the efforts of the Woman's Relief Corps.

Mrs. Logan, who is a member of the National pension committee Woman's Relief Corps, gave an interesting report of the nurses bill now pending in congress.

Mrs. Alger was introduced and acknowledged the greeting of the encampment. On motion of Mrs. E. Florence Barker, a vote of thanks was given Mrs. Alger for co-operation with her husband in aiding the Woman's Relief Corps work.

Mrs. Livermore was then introduced, after which the distinguished lady left the hall.

After Mrs. Wittenmeyer had finished the interrupted address committees on reports, resolutions and courtesies were appointed.

A resolution of sympathy was sent to Mrs. Hettie M. Norton, National chaplain, who was taken ill on her way here.

The honorary member of the order, Post Commander-in-chief Paul Vanderhorst, entered and received an ovation. In his speech he recalled the formation of the order and said he was proud to sign that that he would be to sign the Declaration of Independence.

The evening session was devoted to reports, and Mrs. Wittenmeyer, National president, was unanimously endorsed and complimented on her work. The corps increased largely during the year. There is now a total of 2,022 corps, with 77,779 members.

Ladies of the Grand Army.

Boston, Aug. 14.—The ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic assembled in the fourth annual convention at the Hotel F. Wood of Topeka, Kan., in the chair. The time was occupied by the reading of reports of the various officers. This society differs from the Woman's Relief Corps in that its membership is restricted to the mothers, wives and daughters of honorably discharged soldiers. Officers will be chosen.

Washington Dispatches.

House and Senate Proceedings.

NO QUORUM IN THE HOUSE.

Cases That Body to Adjourn Early in the Day—The Senate Transacts a Little Business Besides Debating the Tariff Bill—Other News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The house yesterday passed a bill authorizing the sale of certain land, the proceeds to be granted to the town of Pelican, Wis., also a bill authorizing the bridging of the Missouri river at St. Charles, Mo. The conference report on the fortifications bill was agreed to. On an effort to call up the Nat. McKay relief bill, no quorum appearing, a call of the house was ordered and continued until 4:35, when the house adjourned.

The senate agreed to the house amendments to the marine conference bills. A resolution was agreed to directing the secretary of the navy to investigate the counterfeit stamping of steel at the Linden works, Pittsburgh. The resolutions of Messrs. Edmunds, Blair and Quay, relating to the order of business and limit of debate were referred to the committee on rules. Mr. Hoar having offered an amendment to include the election bill in the order of business, the joint resolution to extend current appropriations to Aug. 29, was passed. Consideration of the tariff bill was resumed, and the tin plate paragraph was discussed by Messrs. Gray, Gorman, Dawes and Hisscock. The conference report in the Indian appropriation bill was agreed to. The senate passed, with amendments, the bill to increase the clerical force in the pension office.

Change in Our Coinage.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Mr. Teller introduced in the senate yesterday a proposed amendment to the bill to discontinue the coinage of the $3 and $1 gold and the three-cent nickel pieces. The amendment corresponds to first four sections of the recently enacted silver bullion act, with some changes. One of these changes is the omission of the words "Or so much thereof as may be offered," referring to bullion monthly, a stated amount also provides that the amount to be coined shall be not less than 2,000,000 monthly, and the clause limiting the coinage to July 1, 1893, is struck out. A free clause is added, to take effect when silver shall be worth $1 for 371.25 grains, and it is provided that purchases of bullion shall cease when free coinage commences.

First Purchase of Silver.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The treasury department yesterday made its first purchase of silver under the new law providing for the purchase of four millions and a half of silver bullion per month, with treasury notes offered yesterday and 3,000 ounces were purchased, but at what prices Director of the Mint Leach positively declined to state, claiming that public interests would be best served by not disclosing the prices that governed in the transactions of the day.

Prospects of the Election Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—A caucus of Republican senators has been called for to consider the question of postponing the consideration of the Federal election bill until the next session of congress.

The President's Bank Home.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The president, accompanied by Private Secretary Halford, returned to the city at 4 o'clock yesterday evening.

California's Republican Candidate.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 14.—Immediately after reconvening yesterday the Republican state convention adopted the report of the committee on organization, making the temporary officers permanent. The platform was then read and adopted. The convention then nominated Henry S. Markham for governor.

THE CENTRAL STRIKE.

Some Pinkerton Detectives Get Clubbed at Albany.

ALBANY, Aug. 14.—The first affray of the strike occurred at West Albany last night. The assertion had been frequently made that if the Pinkerton men attempted to move the freight they would be stoned. The detectives were evidently scared, for last night when a crowd of spectators gathered on the bridge, they determined to clear it before they started a freight train. Accordingly they moved toward the crowd.

The strikers were not obeyed and in an instant the fellows began to use their clubs. The crowd retaliated and when the city police cleared the bridge two Pinkerton men were found badly hurt and one spectator had a fractured skull. The city police say that the Pinkerton men had no business to route the crowd. Third Vice President Webb arrived in the city yesterday evening and after looking over the ground said he was satisfied and left for New York.

The strike, at least in Albany, does not look as if it was ended. The Central road, which was to have moved a large number of freight trains at West Albany yesterday, has moved just one, and that consisted of only thirty-five cars. It will be seen that this is but a petty move when it is known that on an average one hundred freight trains a day, each consisting of about fifty cars, are moved.

The road did succeed in closing the draw of the freight bridge yesterday evening, and one train was drawn from the approach. About fifty train hands from the Michigan Central railroad arrived here last night and will assist in raising the blockade. The railroad officials have evidently received a setback in the strike on the Delaware and Hudson Canal company's road.

The importance of the move must not be underestimated. The road from Albany north to Saratoga, Montreal and other points, as well as to Vermont, is used by the West Shore, New York Central and the Pennsylvania roads. All of these are, therefore, affected by the strike. It is thought, however, that the road will soon effect a settlement. The Boston and Albany and the Fitchburg roads are in danger, but they will probably stop handling New York Central freight.

At Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Aug. 14.—Superintendent Burrows said: "Everything is all right here. The strike is over so far as we are concerned. We have got more men than we want now. Our passenger trains are moving all right and all the local freights are under way. I have no further trouble on my division."

In New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Mr. Voorhees, the general superintendent, said that it looked as though the strike was a thing of the past. A number of men who had left their work had applied to be reinstated, and in some cases they presented such plausible excuses that they were taken back.

Executive Session Knights of Labor.

DETROIT, Aug. 14.—The general executive board of the Knights of Labor went into session yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will remain in daily session for a period of a week or ten days. In relation to the center of the strike on the New York Central, it is not thought possible to reach a decision to-day. There are a large number of documents to look over in regard to it, some of them over two months old.

CENSUS RETURNS.

Official Count of the Population of the First District of Illinois.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The rough official count of the population of the First district of Illinois, comprising the counties of Cook, Du Page and Lake, has been completed by the census office. The figures are as follows: Cook county, 1,189,230; Du Page, 22,542; Lake, 24,122. Total, 1,235,894. In 1890 the population of this district was 947,951.

Population in Vermont.

MONTELEONE, Vt., Aug. 14.—The superintendent of census authorizes the present population of Vermont is 332,000. The census returns of 1890 gave the population as 332,289. The population seems to have made but little increase.

Population of Maine.

LEWISTON, Me., Aug. 14.—The work of the census enumerators show the population of Maine to be 698,454, an increase of 9,590, since 1880.

A Big One For.

MARSHFIELD, O., Aug. 14.—George Rice, the independent oil refiner, widely known for his long and partially successful fight against the Standard Oil company, was burned out yesterday. While turning a steam engine into a magazine an explosion occurred. Flame sprang from one building to another and all are now in ashes but two left. A great area of stored oil was burned. The loss will reach $50,000, besides the delay in building new structures. One man was fatally burned.

Shoe Factory Burned.

ELSTON, Pa., Aug. 14.—Fire yesterday at Clinton, N. J., destroyed a shoe factory, a machine works and an overall and shirt factory, and damaged the residence of Eugene J. Jones, of the Lehigh Valley road. The depot of the Lehigh Valley road was saved with difficulty. Loss, $20,000.

French War Clouds at Prospect.

MONTREAL, Aug. 14.—M. Larbeau, director of the observatory, on duty at Paris, France, is in Montreal on a mission from the government to report upon the Canadian people's attitude with the view of making a forecast on the extent of the war in France.

FARMERS MEETING AT COLUMBUS.

The Object of the Gathering is to Try and Unite All the Farmers' Organizations in the State—Over One Thousand Farmers Present—Other State News.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 11.—The farmers' convention opened here yesterday at the board of trade auditorium. Admission was denied to everybody save farmers and reporters. At 10 o'clock at least 1,000 farmers crowded into the hall, ready to take part in the proceedings.

The meeting was called to order by Editor Lawrence, of The Ohio Farmer. He stated the object of the gathering was to unite under one head all the farmers' organizations in the state. The following organization was reported: Chairman, J. H. Brigham, Fulton county; secretary, M. H. Lawrence, Cleveland; assistants, Dan. Krus, Morrow; G. E. Lawrence, of Marion, and D. L. Gaskill, of Darke. Mr. Lawrence declined, and A. McDonald, of Huron, was substituted.

A determined effort was made to undo the preliminary work previously accomplished, and it succeeded so far as the committee on resolutions was concerned, and a new committee consisting of a delegate from each congressional district was selected as follows: (First and Twenty-first districts not represented—rest in order):

1. E. C. Ellis, Hamilton, grange.
2. W. G. Thompson, Warren county, alliance.
3. Isaac Freeman, Miami, grange.
4. T. R. McMillan, Logan, alliance.

New Incorporations.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 14.—Articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state yesterday, as follows: The Keckler Manufacturing company, Cincinnati, $50,000; Hodcarriers' Union No. 1, of Akron; Ironville Street Railway company, Toledo, $30,000; Court Robin Hood, No. 5332, A. O. of F. of A. Cleveland; Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western Railway company (consolidated), Findlay, capital stock $1,440,000.

Unusual Freak of Nature.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., Aug. 14.—A girl baby born to Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Reynolds, in the northern part of this county, is exceedingly peculiar from the fact that its hands and feet are strangely malformed. There is no separation of the fingers and toes, and both hands and feet seem to be inclosed in gloves of skin. The child is in the best of health.

Free Delivery for Ironton.

IRONTON, O., Aug. 14.—R. E. Spangler, of the post office department, arrived in the city yesterday, and examined the postoffice books, and decided that this place is entitled to free delivery of mail. At a special meeting held last night of city council the body ordered Engineer Brown to proceed to number all the houses.

Ten More Ballots.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 11.—The Twentieth district Republican congressional convention reconvened at 11 o'clock. Ten ballots were taken without change. The 25th ballot stood as follows: Taylor, 84; Wickham, 87; Burrows, 57; Johnson, 39; Shurtliff, 8; Tibbals, 40.

Catholic Can Eat Meat Friday.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 14.—Bishop John Watterston, in accordance with instructions from Pope Leo XIII, dispensed with the city's abstention from abstention from eating meat on Friday, Aug. 15, because it is the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin.

Prohibition Candidate.

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 11.—P. M. Augur, of Middlefield, was nominated for governor by the Prohibitionists yesterday.

Fatal Crossing.

ORANGE, Mass., Aug. 14.—Joseph A. Sargent, aged 75, and his grandson, aged 4, of Ewing, while crossing the Fitchburg tracks, just east of Ewing station, this morning, were struck by a train and both killed.

Grasshopper War in Algeria.

Immense swarms of grasshoppers have invaded parts of the country of Algeria and are spoiling lots of things. Two thousand soldiers, aided by 12,000 Arabs, have been employed to fight the pest. The roads are covered with the appearance of a battlefield, and extraordinary efforts are being made to rid the surrounding country of this insect enemy.

This is not the first time that this plague has devastated Algeria. In 1845 the harvests of almost the entire country were destroyed by grasshoppers. From 1747 to 1749 these insects desolated Algeria, extending their ravages even to parts of Europe.

Millions on millions of the dead bodies of these insects are covering at present the great roadway leading from Mascara to Mostaganem, and filling the springs and rivers. The task of killing these masses of grasshoppers is no small one. Imagine a district of 100 miles in circumference which not long ago was covered with wheat, tobacco and fig and olive trees, but now is so densely covered with grasshoppers that not a single green branch or leaf can be seen. For three years a distinguished Parisian naturalist, M. Kunze, has been studying how to exterminate these creatures. The best plan seems to be that of stamping the moving, quivering heaps with the bare feet. Shovels and other sharp instruments are used, but it has been noticed that the elastic layers of grasshoppers tend to rebound after pressure and only the layers on top are crushed. Large fires have also been lighted, but the dense smoke arising from the flames is only partly effective in preventing the descent of these all devouring swarms. —New York Sun.

Banker Von Kandler's Trial.

Herr Alfred Von Kandler, whose trial for fraud has commenced before a Vienna jury, was the head of an old banking house founded in 1790, which failed in November last with liabilities amounting to upward of 2,500,000 florins. The prisoner, who was arrested a week after this event, is charged with appropriating to his own use deposits of private persons or firms amounting to nearly 2,000,000 florins. It appears that the accused, who was of extravagant habits, began to tamper with the deposits in 1881. Among the persons defrauded is the head waiter at the hotel where Kandler used to dine, and who had given up the whole of his savings, amounting to over 22,000 florins. The accused, who is a man of 60 years of age, when asked by the president of the court whether he pleaded guilty, answered that the facts stated in the indictment were, generally speaking, correct; but that, as he firmly believed and hoped he would be able to replace the borrowed money, he did not feel guilty. The trial is the topic of general conversation in Vienna society. —Cor. London Standard.

Treasures in the Passaic River.

A few days ago "Bert" Lyons and a dozen other boys were diving in about ten feet of water in the Passaic river near Belleville, N. J., in rivalry as to which of them should bring up the most shells from the muddy bottom. When it was young Lyons' turn to plunge he remained so long under the water that his companions began to fear that he had gone down to stay, or else was gathering so many shells that the contest would be virtually over when he reappeared. He came up at last, however, without any shells, but holding aloft triumphantly, for the contemplation of his envious friends, a solid silver double case Waltham watch and chain that he had fished out of the depths. The watch had stopped at 7:20 o'clock, but the proud finder has ascertained that it will merrily resume work when the water has been pumped out of it and its internal organization has been soaked for ten days in oil. —New York Tribune.

Old Hare.

The man who was hurrying into the bathers recently was on business. He wanted his old hat. "When did you leave it here?" "I don't," was the reply. They hunted over a great pyramid of hats and found it, labeled July 2. When the man went out the hatter said: "That man bought a new hat here and when he went out said he would call for it in half an hour. It has now been four weeks. We throw away seven or eight hundred old hats every year, for which the owners are going to call in half an hour." —Lewiston Journal.

Artificial vs. Natural Ice.

The manufacture of artificial ice has been begun in Reading, Pa., and the enterprise is already pronounced a decided success. The ice is made into cakes of 100 pounds each, and is declared to be of the finest quality. The retail price is the same as that of natural ice. Several of the big brewing companies of Reading have decided to manufacture artificial ice. The Reading Brewing company is now manufacturing artificial ice by the ammonia process. —New York Telegram.

The Morgue Crowded.

Forty bodies were taken to the morgue Friday, and the number is extraordinary. Thirteen were from Bellevue hospital, eleven from the institutions on Ward's and Blackwell's islands, six from the Foundling hospital, and the others from police stations and persons too poor to bury their dead. —New York Times.

The accounts of a pill maker who has just died in England show that he has been spending $250,000 a year for advertising. His heirs, however, are finding no particular fault with this extravagance, as he leaves an estate valued at $25,000,000—all due to pills and advertising.

INTERESTING SERMONS AT THE AD-
VENTIST CAMP MEETING

Elder Jones Gives a Morning Talk on the Character of God, and a Foreboding Discourse on Religion in the Evening. Elder Chadwick speaks again on Missionary Work, and Dr. Hare Takes Part in the Temperance Meeting.

ELDER JONES' MORNING TALK.
At the early 5:30 morning meeting Elder A. T. Jones occupied most of the time. His remarks were upon the character of God.

He said he knew that God loves him and all the world because He is love, it is His very nature to do it. God has not called us unto wrath. He did not believe in sinning.

"Oh, do not our sins delight in sinning?"

For God had said we shall not seek his face in vain. We must not take our religion from the hymn book, but from the Bible. We must not form our conceptions of God by attributing to Him our own characters, but what He has said of Himself in His word. To the woman of Samaria the Savior said, "We worship ye know not what." We want to know what we worship, and what being we can worship with profit is the Lord. And the only proper way to do that is "in spirit and in truth." We cannot learn of God's moral attributes from nature. The only way we can find out who and what God is, is to receive what the Bible says of Him. If people would believe the Bible and not interpret it, and obey it and not judge it, the world would be ever so much better off. We should not form our conceptions of God from ourselves for if we do we will worship simply ourselves. How then may we know of God and His character? Paul says (1 Cor. 2:11): "For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the spirit of God." So it is the spirit of God only that knows God, and it is only through that that His attributes and character are revealed to us, as verse 10 says: "But God hath revealed them unto us by His spirit; for the spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God." We learn of God's character in His word, and when we read that, the only way we can then know is simply to believe it. How can we worship Him in truth, except we know what he is? And how can we know what he is, but from what he has said in His word, which is truth (John 17:17). All the character an idol has, is what the idol worshiper gives to it, which is his own. So idol worship is simply self-worship. He thinks the idol wants certain things of him, but it does not. Its wants are simply those he gives it, and those are his own. In Mark 7:21, Christ says: "Out of the heart of men proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, etc., and in this we read the character of every heathen god ever worshipped. As the Psalmist says: 'They that make them are like unto them.' —Ps. 115:8. If you want to study self-worship, study heathenism. To those who disregard his word, God says: 'Thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself.' The only God a man can worship and better himself is a God that is better than he is. So God tries ever to draw our thoughts away from ourselves. The true disciple must 'deny himself.' Christ came to save us from ourselves. We have been serving ourselves. From this time on we want to serve God. God says: 'For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.' —Isa. 55:9. We are on the earth and are of the earth earthly; God is in Heaven and is Heavenly; but Christ came down to reveal the Father to us. Said He: 'He that hath seen me hath seen the Father.' —John 14:9. God's character is plainly stated in Ex. 34:6, 7: 'The Lord, the Lord, God, merciful and gracious, long suffering, abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin.' That is the Lord. His disposition is to treat us better than we deserve. He delights to forgive. 'The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.' —Ps. 147:11. 'He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities; for as the Heaven is high above the earth, so great is His mercy toward them that fear Him.' —Ps. 103:10, 11. 'To Israel He saith, all day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.' —Rom. 10:20. 'Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.' —John 6:37. 'He will be very gracious unto them of the voice of thy cry, when he shall hear it, He will answer thee.' —Isa. 30:19. That is the Lord. He is a God of love and mercy. Let us worship Him.

'He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities; for as the Heaven is high above the earth, so great is His mercy toward them that fear Him.' —Ps. 103:10, 11. 'To Israel He saith, all day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.' —Rom. 10:20. 'Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.' —John 6:37. 'He will be very gracious unto them of the voice of thy cry, when he shall hear it, He will answer thee.' —Isa. 30:19. That is the Lord. He is a God of love and mercy. Let us worship Him.

For God had said we shall not seek his face in vain. We must not take our religion from the hymn book, but from the Bible. We must not form our conceptions of God by attributing to Him our own characters, but what He has said of Himself in His word. To the woman of Samaria the Savior said, "We worship ye know not what." We want to know what we worship, and what being we can worship with profit is the Lord. And the only proper way to do that is "in spirit and in truth." We cannot learn of God's moral attributes from nature. The only way we can find out who and what God is, is to receive what the Bible says of Him. If people would believe the Bible and not interpret it, and obey it and not judge it, the world would be ever so much better off. We should not form our conceptions of God from ourselves for if we do we will worship simply ourselves. How then may we know of God and His character? Paul says (1 Cor. 2:11): "For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the spirit of God." So it is the spirit of God only that knows God, and it is only through that that His attributes and character are revealed to us, as verse 10 says: "But God hath revealed them unto us by His spirit; for the spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God." We learn of God's character in His word, and when we read that, the only way we can then know is simply to believe it. How can we worship Him in truth, except we know what he is? And how can we know what he is, but from what he has said in His word, which is truth (John 17:17). All the character an idol has, is what the idol worshiper gives to it, which is his own. So idol worship is simply self-worship. He thinks the idol wants certain things of him, but it does not. Its wants are simply those he gives it, and those are his own. In Mark 7:21, Christ says: "Out of the heart of men proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, etc., and in this we read the character of every heathen god ever worshipped. As the Psalmist says: 'They that make them are like unto them.' —Ps. 115:8. If you want to study self-worship, study heathenism. To those who disregard his word, God says: 'Thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself.' The only God a man can worship and better himself is a God that is better than he is. So God tries ever to draw our thoughts away from ourselves. The true disciple must 'deny himself.' Christ came to save us from ourselves. We have been serving ourselves. From this time on we want to serve God. God says: 'For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.' —Isa. 55:9. We are on the earth and are of the earth earthly; God is in Heaven and is Heavenly; but Christ came down to reveal the Father to us. Said He: 'He that hath seen me hath seen the Father.' —John 14:9. God's character is plainly stated in Ex. 34:6, 7: 'The Lord, the Lord, God, merciful and gracious, long suffering, abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin.' That is the Lord. His disposition is to treat us better than we deserve. He delights to forgive. 'The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.' —Ps. 147:11. 'He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities; for as the Heaven is high above the earth, so great is His mercy toward them that fear Him.' —Ps. 103:10, 11. 'To Israel He saith, all day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.' —Rom. 10:20. 'Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.' —John 6:37. 'He will be very gracious unto them of the voice of thy cry, when he shall hear it, He will answer thee.' —Isa. 30:19. That is the Lord. He is a God of love and mercy. Let us worship Him.

THE KREUTZER SONATA.

What E. J. Edwards Has to Say of Tolstoy's Latest Production.

[Special Correspondence.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—The action of the government respecting the "Kreutzer Sonata" makes that book the topic of the week.

It is true that occasionally in this little work lines appear which suggest the author of "Anna Karenina" and of "Peace and War"; but these hints of genius are infrequent.

Those persons who buy the book expecting to be delighted with it as they were, for instance, with that exquisite short story of his which he called "The Cossacks," will be bitterly disappointed.

In the view of many of the critics his story of "The Cossacks," which is an exquisitely venturesome book, is far more reprehensible than "The Kreutzer Sonata."

Some effort has been made to take advantage of the notoriety which this reputation has been short-lived, and the work will be consigned to the flames by every one who buys it as a work of art.

Among the Women of Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 20.—The Turkish women are very much averse to having strangers come and with ill disguised curiosity examine and comment upon everything.

There are no tea drinkings, no receptions, no social meetings of whatever nature in Turkey which could bring ladies of all the different nations together.

Queer Foods.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Every week sees a lot of queer foods brought through the custom house from abroad for the benefit of foreign born citizens who retain a hankering for the delicacies of their native land.

Dr. Wayland is to Philadelphia what Chauncey Dewey is to New York, viz., the favorite after dinner speaker. His speech at the last dinner of the New England Society of New York on "Why Are We New Englanders So Unpopular?" gave him a national reputation for wit and extemporized tribute from Chauncey Dewey that his speech "would remain at once the status and fresco of the occasion."

MR. AND MRS. BOWSER.

The Latter Tells How the Former Moved the Hall Coat Stove.

Last fall Mr. Bowser put a large burner in the front hall to keep that comfortable temperature during the winter, and when the spring came nothing was said about moving the stove.

"Well, well, but how absent minded I have become! Why didn't you call my attention to the fact that that coal stove had not been moved out of the hall?"

"Because it is to be left there." "Not much! People must have thought as a queer family to have it there as long as we have."

"Mr. B-w-s-e-r, that stove is not in the way, and it is not an eyesore. Besides we have no place to store it."

"Mr. Bowser, you can no more move that stove than I can fly."

"Certainly. You are the great American protester, anyway. If I killed a fly you'd protest."

I went back to the steps, knowing well what would happen, but I felt that I had done my duty. I heard him fussing around for a while, and then he muttered:

"She's purty hefty, but she's got to come out of this."

Ten seconds later there was a wild whoop, and when I got into the hall Mr. Bowser stood on one foot and was shaking the other in the air, while the top of the stove lay on the floor. He had pulled it off at the first grab.

"Thunder and blazes—and Jewhitter—and Texas—and Jemina!" he was yelling as he waved his foot aloft.

"Didn't I tell you? I queried, as I looked at him.

"Not a word! You never said a word—not a word!"

"Now, will you let that stove alone?" "Not! I'll take it out of here if I die for it!"

"Mr. Bowser, this pig-headed obstinacy of yours will surely lead to—"

"None of the Bowser family were ever yet downed by a coal stove, and it's too late to begin now!"

Another man would have removed the legs first. He didn't think of it, but undertook to move the stove as one moves a barrel standing on end.

My first impression was that the ginger ale factory in the alley had exploded, and driven our barn up against the kitchen.

Like an empty barrel, and every square inch of him was bruised and pounded. It was long after midnight before he said anything.

"Mrs. Bowser, is it fatal?" "Oh, no, dear."

"Any bones broken?" "None."

"Did the stove fall on me?" "Yes, dear."

"Don't fret, dear," me, Mrs. Bowser, for I won't stand it! The scales have fallen from my eyes at last, and I know you for what you are! A nice job, wasn't it? Calculated I'd be driven through the floor, didn't you? Hoped to be a widow by this time, eh? To-morrow, Mrs. Bowser, I'll call up a lawyer, and we'll see what's what!"—Detroit Free Press.

Her Outing.

Indigestion

[S] not only a distressing complaint, of itself, but, by causing the blood to become depraved and the system enfeebled, is the parent of innumerable maladies. That Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for Indigestion, even when complicated with Liver Complaint, is proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Centre, Mich.:

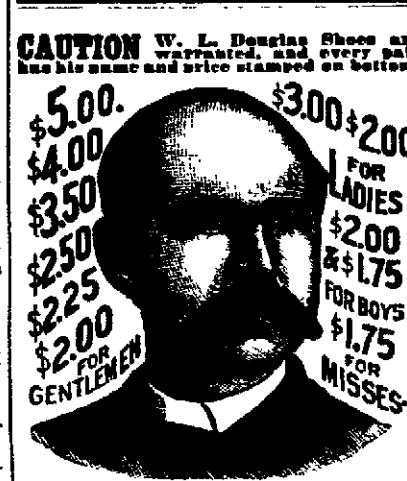

"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."

SHE WAS POISONED!

Not by anything she drank or took, but by bad blood. In most cases blood is only another name for bad blood. A man or woman feels unhappy. Life seems dark. The heart is heavy. Bad blood is carrying its poison all over the body, and we call it "blood."

Read these experiences: Mrs. C. C. Hutchinson, of Pittston, Pa., says: "I consider Dr. Acker's English Blood Elixir the best medicine in the world, not only for blood troubles, but also for dyspepsia, with which I have been afflicted."

THE KREUTZER SONATA.

What E. J. Edwards Has to Say of Tolstoi's Latest Production. (Special Correspondence.) NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—The action of the government respecting the "Kreutzer Sonata" makes that book the topic of the week.

RELIGIOUS EDITORS.

PREACHERS WHOSE AUDIENCES ARE GREAT INDEED.

They Hold the Opinions of Hundreds of Thousands of Thoughtful Readers as No Editors of Daily or Weekly Secular Papers May Hope To.

(Special Correspondence.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—The average clergyman, if he reaches an audience of 500 persons a week with his sermons, considers himself fortunate—and so he is. The editor of a great religious journal, by the magic of the printing press and kindred wonders, speaks each week to thousands. The sermon is heard and forgotten. The editorial may be read and re-read. The editor of the sermon rarely can quote a striking utterance with accuracy, and thus pass on to his friends exactly what the preacher has said.

Among the Women of Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 20.—The Turkish women are very much averse to having strangers come and with ill disguised curiosity examine and comment upon everything, and they are also exceedingly sensitive as to their peculiar dress, far more so, I think, than to their peculiar manners.

reading, "faith cure," etc., and his articles in The Century, published some time ago, gave him standing as an authority on these subjects.

Queer Foods.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Every week sees a lot of queer foods brought through the custom house from abroad for the benefit of foreign born citizens who retain a hankering for the delicacies of their native land.

Indigestion

Is not only a distressing complaint, of itself, but, by causing the blood to become depraved and the system enfeebled, is the parent of innumerable maladies.

That Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for Indigestion, even when complicated with Liver Complaint, is proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Centre, Mich.:

"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."

NORMAL NUGGETS.

Mr. J. Eccles is visiting at Lima this week.

Miss Anna Ward is attending school this term.

The first meeting of the society will be held next Friday night.

Wallace McCurdy spent Tuesday with friends at Mt. Gilead.

The little child of Eli Guston is quite sick with an attack of fever.

A number of the Philos attended the picnic at Scott Town August 14th.

Miss Mary Klinefelter is talking of attending school at Findlay this fall.

Mr. H. V. Spicer was visiting his brother, on Franconia avenue, Monday.

Howard Donithon, of Waldo, is attending school at the Normal this term.

Mr. Campbell left the Normal to accept a position at the Blue Front, last Monday.

The Normal back line is running between the camp ground and the square this week.

Mr. William Garwood, of Agosta, was circulating among friends in East Marion Monday.

Campbell is talking of organizing a gun club in the near future. We expect some very fine shooting as the manager is quite a Shulist.

August 14. INCOGNITO MENDAX.

Temporarily Organized.

An Indianapolis dispatch of Wednesday states that the purchasers of the Chicago and Atlantic railroad affected a temporary organization Wednesday night. Hereafter the road will be known as the Chicago and Erie, with Geo. W. Ristine, George C. Cochran, John Toild, M. D. Woodford, David Bossmon, Charles W. Pierson, W. H. Tannis, Wm. Coughlin, A. W. Hendricks, Albert Baker, V. T. Malott and J. H. Bernard, directors. The deed will be delivered to the Erie company on Friday of next week, and it is the expectation that the receiver will be relieved from further responsibility September 1.

Look Out for a Fraud.

Some of the good ladies on south East street were swindled by a traveling sewing machine repairer and they desire the Star to warn other Marion ladies against the scamp. He solicits the job of cleaning a sewing machine, at the cost of one dollar, but after doing the work he not only raises his price to $1.50, but in the instance referred to here, he purposely broke a needle bar and charged $1.50 for replacing it with an old one, when the catalogue price of such repairs is only 60 cents. The dealers pronounce him a fraud and those who deal with him will find him so. Have nothing to do with him.

Sunday School Picnic.

There will be a general Sunday school picnic held in the beautiful grove on the Judge Snyder farm, two miles south of here, Aug. 20. The grove is situated on an eminence just east of the late residence, just far enough from the road to be free from dust. A cordial invitation is extended to all Sunday schools and to the public to come and bring their baskets and have an old fashioned good time of recreation. If any speeches at all they must be short.

Wednesday Night's Fire.

The fire department was called out Wednesday night about 11 o'clock, to a small blaze at the Steam Shovel Co.'s works, but the fire was extinguished before their arrival. The fire originated from the core oven in the foundry, igniting a window-sash, and was easily controlled. All departments responded promptly. The city team performed admirably and the boys say never ran better. The damage done was very small.

Came Together.

DANVILLE, Ky., Aug. 14.—A very serious and damaging railway wreck occurred here to today, caused by two freight trains colliding at this place. One engineer and a tramp who was stealing a ride, were instantly killed. The wreck is a costly one. It is not known who is responsible for the accident.

—Progress in sewer business is getting on quite rapidly on the outfall sewer. Steps are also being taken toward providing for building the laterals and trunk lines. Of course only the preliminary work in this direction can be done now. Sewer district No. 1 has been established, which extends from Railroad street south to South street, and from Baker street on the east west to Prairie street. A petition for a sewer in this district is now in circulation and is being well signed. It is hoped in this way to get sewerage for the district, with trunk lines and laterals, this fall and winter. The trunk line to connect with the outfall sewer will be arranged in a manner hereafter provided.

—An accident occurred at the bridge in course of rebuilding by the B. & F. at LaRue, Wednesday afternoon. A large derrick, which was being used in lifting heavy stones in position, operated upon trucks and chained to the rails, was thrown over by the weight of the load and tore up the track. The men who were working with the machine all escaped injury except one who was slightly hurt in jumping. Passenger train 2 and a fast stock train were delayed about an hour by the accident.

—There are a number of street crossings in the city that should be looked after and repaired. With the horse cart coming over them at the rate it goes to a fire, there is great danger in a breakdown during a fire that may become costly.

—Stock subscriptions to the I. C. Wyman Manufacturing Co. are being taken almost every day, and there are good reasons to believe that the requisite amount of capital will be obtained to locate the works here. Fourteen hundred dollars in subscriptions were taken Tuesday.

—Heath, of the Red located an incendiary at a bench in a box car standing on the line during this morning. The cause was a barrel containing what was supposed to be decomposed dressed poultry which had come in with the car, but it likely could approach near enough to make a thorough investigation. The car was ordered out of the city.

The Ladies Delighted.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.
